BEST DRAPES

Designers love Custom Workroom Services for its quality work and impeccable customer service. Sarah and Danny Senter make great drapes that won't send you into bankruptcy. Check out their work at the Rosewood Mansion on Turtle Creek. They've also done work for local celebs, although they're much too polite to name names.

BEST MONOGRAMMER

Maybe your family didn't come over on the Mayflower and you lack a family crest. Not a problem. Joan Cecil can create one for you. She can also study a room and incorporate elements—whether it's a pattern on a rug or the design on your Fortuny drapes—into her intricate monogram designs on your chairs, pillows, coverlets, and more.

BEST STORE REDESIGN

Todd Fiscus' redesign of Avant Garden happened at the end of 2008, but the store makes us so happy that we had to mention it. His inspiration? "It's a return to elegance—Belle Époque with a modern twist. I was inspired by libraries in those great old European houses, which housed great literature, wonderful objets d'art, and, obviously, floral decorations." Next time you need to say you're sorry with flowers, head here.
